REPORT OF PRINCIPAL AND SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT COUNCIL

In 2008-09, Palmetto Bays Elementary celebrated our seventh year of serving students in child development through fifth grade. Our teachers are highly qualified and through collaboration focus on the individual learning styles of each student. We enjoy a unique team approach between teachers, parents, and students. We encourage parent and teacher participation through conferencing, parenting workshops, student study teams, and other activities. A few of our school highlights are after-school fine arts clubs, during school tutoring, preschool story time, reading incentive program, active parent organization, on-site after-school care, student mentoring program, business partners, Science exploration lab, National Board Certified teachers, Pre-K early literacy program, curriculum coaches, book grant for students, student operated morning news program, student support of service projects, Good News club, art club, chorus, and a yearly student and parent talent show. W. David James, Principal; Shannon Day, School Improvement Council Chair
